Monday, December 7, 2009

Present: Anne Dzamba, Tom Spackman, Kris Walker, Dick Webster (acting chair).

Ed Travis, Chairman of Board of Supervisors.

Jane Dorchester, Consultant to HPC for HRS.

1. Announcements

Dick Webster introduced new commission member Kris Walker, and announced Eric Burling's resignation from the commission.

2. Minutes of October 5, 2009

The commission approved the minutes of October 5, 2009, as presented.

3. Presentation

Architectural historian Jane Dorchester transmitted to the commission the final products the township's VPP Project. The materials included:

- Historic resource GIS wall map
- Thornbury Township historic resource inventory database spreadsheet
- Property file folders for 27 properties
- 4 notebooks with property search reports, historic resource survey forms, National Register forms, and indexes
- CD of the historic resource GIS wall map
- 2 CDs of the materials included in the notebooks.

The commission will review the materials, collect any errors in them, and submit them to Ms. Dorchester for a final edit by March 1, 2010.

4. Cheyney Farm National Register Nomination Report

Ms. Dorchester reported that the state review board rejected the Nomination, but that the nomination is presently in the Office of the Keeper of the National Register, National Park Service, in Washington, DC and is under review there.

5. Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 P.M.
